the watchlist

2021 YEARBOOK

From the heart of London to the heart of Delhi to finally, the heart of ISBF.

THE WATCHLIST

Perhaps the aptest double entendre suitable for these three years. College life has always been fast-paced and rushed, much like the nearby metros and folklore food spots. Time passes in a blink of an eye and every blink brings in new changes, choices, and priorities. As students, compromise is something college slaps onto you, as you mature and grow into a whole new personality. The watchlist is a prime example of that; a constant reminder of the compromises we make for our confusion-laced new priorities. The watchlist is a symbol of growth, struggle, stress-induced coffees, shared guilty laughs, and even with the feeling of impending doom looming over your head; the constant reminder that you are not alone. Isn't this emotion, this feeling, the essence of college life in its purest form? The struggle to pull through any situation, and metamorphosis into a stronger being than the one you were before. As these three years now come to an end, all of you are on a different watchlist. The universe is watching and waiting for each and everyone to make their mark. The world is your oyster. Even if you haven't been on the watchlist before, the feeling is easily understandable. The feeling of harmony in perfect chaos.

Welcome to the Watchlist.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

DR. G L TAYAL

Heartfelt congratulations to the graduating class of 2021. It is a matter of deep satisfaction that, having devoted three precious years of your youth to studies at ISBF, you are going to become a Graduate from the University of London. I would also like to express my sincerest admiration and gratitude to your family members and teachers who have encouraged and supported you during your stay at ISBF.

It has been my pleasure and pride to serve as your Dean at ISBF during the three years of your studies here. I also had the opportunity to teach courses on Organization Theory and Research Project in Digital Innovation to some students of the Batch 2021. I believe you were able to gain a true appreciation for the philosophy of learning at ISBF in tune with the LSE motto of 'Rerum cognoscere causas' or 'understanding the causes of things'. Society needs highly qualified people like you who are capable of objective judgment and global networking. I am sure you will become highly skilled professionals, capable of utilizing the analytical and creative skills you obtained through your studies at ISBF for building a better future for your self and the humanity at large.

Take care and stay in touch.

Sincerely,
Dr. G L Tayal
Dean Academics, ISBF

MESSAGE FROM THE ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR

CHIRAAG MEHTA

Congratulations, Batch of 2021! Congratulations is a bittersweet term at such times - while it acknowledges the successful completion (in all likelihood) of a challenging, peerless programme you undertook with a discerning decision three years ago, it also means your time in college draws to a close. And this is the most bittersweet of bittersweet congratulations, having not seen so many of you through all of last year, and yet having seen so many of you achieve so much - extracurricular responsibilities, jobs, offers for further study, research, projects and more.

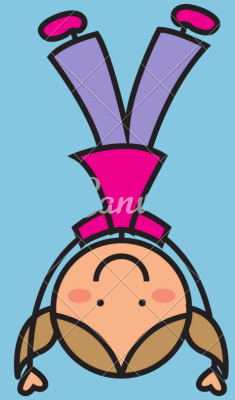

As you walk out into the 'real world', know that you are better prepared to navigate it than practically any of your peers. Your journey to becoming a problem solver in this 'real world' began three years ago, and as you graduate, know that you have arrived!

Best Regards,
Chiraag Mehta
Associate Director, ISBF

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE BATCH OF 2022

YUKTHA BHADANE

Dear Batch of 2021,
How are you? Are you feeling nostalgic?

Before wanting to break out of the 16:9 laptop screen, we had a different life. Funny, I call it different. We had a normal life. These kids (Batch of 2023) would never know! So, do we reminisce from the top?

August 2019.

You can lie all you want and say that you never judged us but save it, you did judge us. To be honest, we did not judge you; we were not in a position to do so. Naturally, we had started looking up to you and then you spoke to us with honesty; so the entire 'looking up to you' bit did not really work out for us. Let us face it, you were not amazing or anything. You were just normal. And, you made us feel normal.

You calmed us down from the very moment we saw you. Those uncomfortable first few days sitting in the usual room, the first couple awkward moments with the security guards and the warden, the first scary encounter with the Batch of 2020. We would not have been able to go through it, had it not been for you. You made it seem normal. Normal to be seen, Normal to be judged, Normal to be spoken about on Overheard, Normal to fail the first few tests, Normal to fail every Stats test. You just blinked your eyes, shook your head, laughed at us, told us about your first times and you asked us to breathe.

Do you remember, the Freshers you threw us, and we? Well, we threw up. The trip you took us on, and we? Do not really remember most of it. And the work you delegated to us, and we? Did not quite do it. But, I remember how you never brought that up between us. You taught us to keep it separate; the personal and the professional.

You taught us how to survive this tiny township ISBF is; between 7 Lecture Rooms, 2 Conference Rooms, an eerie Library, an exposing Council Room, Our Usual Room, the other boring Room, and the Emergency room (where Shweta Ma'am sits); you taught us how to keep it together.

Thank you.

Thank you for adopting us. I mean, did you have a choice? The moment we saw each other, we knew we were stuck. Stuck in the 'heart' of Delhi, for the first year and then stuck at 'Stay at Home' the next year. Two long years. We were together. It never felt like a junior-senior relationship, though.

Thank you for walking the walk and then sharing it with us. We may not have been able to grasp what you told us then, but now, we understand. It is how our dramatic mothers tell us, "you will understand when you have your own kids!". Well, we understood how it must have felt when we did not complete the work you delegated, or the copious reminders to study. Our time came this year, when Bo' 23 shut the same door, on our face this time.

Choosing ISBF is almost a real-life, "The Road Not Taken". It was comforting to see some 45 odd pilgrims on that road. I want you to know that you killed it. You made our first two years worthwhile and gave us stories to tell for a lifetime. You shared your memories, for us to smile, cry and panic about. You held the mirror for us. You told us it was a long walk. You walked two years of it, showing us what would lie ahead of us. You made us embrace ISBF. Everyone needs a Batch of 2021.

You might be going to fancier colleges, start-ups, MNCs, and you are going to be new to it. I know, it has been three years since you were a freshman but life is completing a circle; you are now on a new "The Road Not Taken." All I will wish for you is to find your 'Batch of 2021', someone who will just blink and nod at you, maybe laugh at you, tell you all about their experience and ask you to breathe and relax with a smile. Everyone needs a Batch of 2021.

Thank you for a glorious time, cheers!

You love us,
Batch of 2022

look what we found...

ADITI DAHAKE

The cheerful girl of the batch, always up for helping others and taking initiatives, loves good food and warm hangouts! Always ready for a fun conversation and making new friends

Coffee partner!!!! KCC and Nik wouldn't be the same without you

-Bhavya Sudhakar

"I remember my first interaction with you; it was Xenia and I was bugging you like anything.

The only vibes you gave me were ""I am the serious one, Maintain the distance!"" The online world made me believe in a Aditi that was far from the Aditiii (YJHD context).

Then, I met you in person where I just clicked with you, the ""Serious Aditi"" became the 3rd year I wanted to spend time with. Only a few days and I could feel us bond over.

So, I want to ask you out for our pending-unpending coffee date?

- Kritika Soni

Hey Aditi, first of all sorry for not keeping up with the agenda thing that I asked you about. Secondly, you were a wonderful senior all the way through and I can't thank you enough for checking up on me during last yr. Xenia prep.

Thank you so much and enjoy a ton!

- Rishi Vinod

Haha! Talked very less! But you seem like the coolest to hang out for food!

- Harsh Barot

You have been such an important part of my life even though we were never that close. From living across you to almost living with you at M63, its been a long journey! I wish you all the love and luck in the world for everything you wish to achieve! See you soon!

-Colin Chadna

The go to person for best hugs and conversations!

- Sanya Chandra

ANIRBAN MAITY

Mr Popular! The People's Blaize President (haha) and an insane trip sitter, Fun-loving, selfless and can be found scamming first years for PRT (haha) and chilling in the pool room

Bindass - Bhavesh Sridhar

I believe the pool room was made for you bro! I mean you made everyone fall in love with pool in their first years and make them addicted to at least two games a day. Your crazy and humorous side always makes you stand out, especially your Instagram dance sessions and out of the box performance in all the society events. I believe the amount of hard work you put in while doing tasks without any stress is just phenomenal! Hope to see you often after college.

- Kanan Gupta

Bro have a wonderful future ahead and can't forget the numerous monopoly deal games we had dude. Also, know that I always beat you in every game that we played okay. Have a great one man, enjoy!

- Rishi Vinod

Grade A Harami Material. I hope someone scams your sorry ass one day hahaha. I love you bro. I have shared countless laughs with you over too much shit! Cheers to more drama, dance vibes, and bhand nights with you as the best fkn trip sitter!

-Siddharth T

'Electrically charged, super crazy, legendary dancer and an awesome person to be with'; that's how I am always going to remember you. Many many congratulations Anirbann and all the best for your future.

-Sneha Chakrabarti

I will never ever find a dancer as good as you and I know that for a fact! I hope you do really well in life and I wanna take this opportunity to wish you all the best for everything that you set out to do!

-Colin Chandna

The energy within you is unparalleled man. Never lose that spark. Twerker! - Raghav Gupta

Just want to say that you are the best stats PRT teacher! Love you for that bro! - Harsh Barot Anirban, you are the most helpful person I have ever met. I mean who the hell guides someone about the hostel while they are dying of dust allergy, and, offers their jacket to someone else when they themselves are shivering?

I can't count the number of times you have helped me on my fingers.

Thank you so much, Anirban :)

- Sanjana Shetty

We became close because of the elections in the second year and I never knew what a nice and genuine person he was. Glad that I got to know him in my second and third year well. He is one crazy guy that you can never get low around.

- Vidhi Tiwari

Hands down the most entertaining person I have come across and I will obviously never forget you. I hope the best for you and how is this complete if I don't mention Divya xD Lots of love <3

- Shubhangi Singh

POOL ROOM BOY - KHEPA DANCER - MY LAME JOKES

BUDDY! Ever cheerful, ever-loving, ever-supportive (Sirf achche kaam mei). Love being around this guy! Bhai hai mera, GF bhi, motivator bhi, sab cheez ka mixture hai!

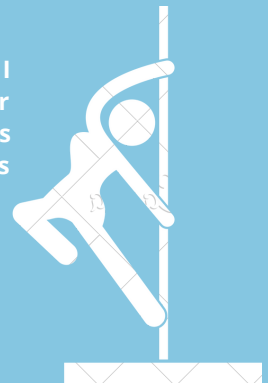

-Hitesh Jain

Maity mere dost, if you're reading this, call me! I know a person we can scam. Have fun in life dude, the Single Londa committee needs you.

- Pranav Kakkar

It was the twerk and the Gandhi impression, and within a week of college starting, we all knew what Anirban will always be known for!

-Sanya Chandra

ANMOL BANSAL

A responsible person wanting to put his best foot forward in both academics and the initiatives he takes up. Handworking, sincere and always willing to lend a hand

Hello! I hope you're doing well and believe it or not, you have played a very important role in my life. I wish you the very best for everything you wish to do and I hope to chill with you super soon!

- Colin Chandna

I still remember the first time we met- Xenia Logistics ke naam pe GF advice dene se lekar PBF and Micro notes and answers exchange karne tak hum kaafi achhe dost ban gaye. Stay just the way you are and zara Badminton khelne aa jaya karo beech beech me.

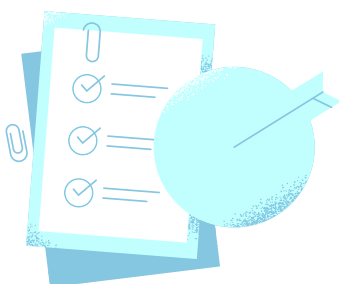

- Mihir Raravikar

For all the times you've annoyed me and for all the times you've helped me, thanks! You've been an amazing friend!

- Sanya Chandra

Thanks for the amazing advice, whenever I needed bro! Make sure you smile long smiles and have a load of fun! Stay blessed.

- Pranav Kakkar

ANUSHKA NARULA

The walking fashion parade, cheerful. The go to person if you're looking for a good place to grab a bite

She is really a sweet and fun person to be around. I think we became friends in the second year at Kundan. Wish her the best of luck for the future and looking forward to retaining this bond.

- Vedika Gupta

One of the craziest person I know! Thanks for making me laugh throughout my first year exam nights. Wish you the best of luck for your life ahead! Always stay the same!

- Kanan Gupta

Hello, Nushu girl. I've thoroughly enjoyed getting to know you these past 3 years. I'm super, super glad that I met you. All those times we spent laughing in the back of your car while your driver judging us are gonna be missed immensely. Nobody's gonna force me to skip classes and go for lunch anymore lol. I'm gonna miss chilling in college and hanging out around Kundu's spot with you and the other 2 mean girls. See you at Donna v v soon

- Khwaish Juneja

ARSHITA AGGARWAL

The calm and composed one that always has a daydream going on!

Hey school mate! When we were in school, I never thought I would cross paths with you ahead in life. It's been a fun journey with you. Eating at Nik bakers, sitting in classes with you and doing that ducking IIS project, it's all been fun and crazy. Honestly, if it weren't for you, that stupid project which ruined my life wouldn't get completed in the first place. All in all, you are an amazing friend. Love you!

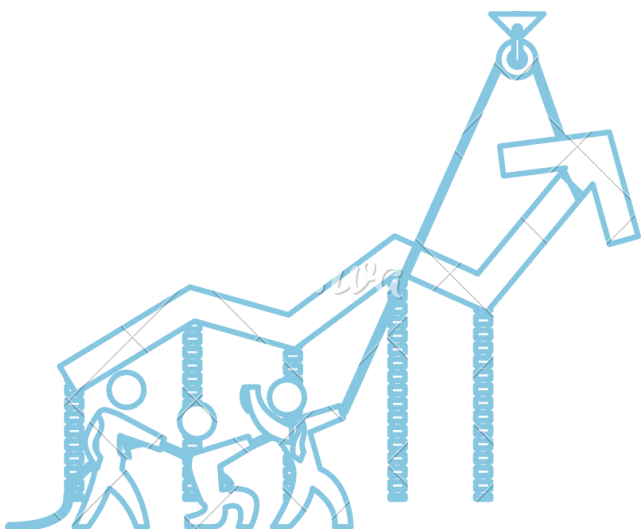

-Chitrangani Davda

My very first friend in college. I can never thank you enough. Keep in touch and I am there for you!

-Meha Surana

Hello, love. You are one of the kindest, generous and cutest person I have ever met and I hope nothing ever hurts your innocence and you never change. I'm gonna miss dragging you to parties and ordering chocolate ice cream with you! I love you!

- Colin Chandna

BHAVESH SHRIDHAR

The silent owl of the batch,
the kid who loves discussions and awkward smiles

I have legit seen you with a smile every single day in college. I mean how can someone be so cheerful always? It was crazy to practice with you for Blaize daily in the first year and have those amazing sessions. I hope you achieve all the success in life and get what you desire. See you soon!

- Kanan Gupta

Bhavesh! Not gonna lie, I don't like when you score more than I do, but then I realize you also study wayyyy more than I do and that's only fair! Jokes aside, I think you are a great person and I wish you all the best for everything you set out to do! See you soon!

- Colin Chandna

Hey Bhavesh! Studious and disciplined, how are you so organised in everything you do? Good luck with your future endeavours bro! :)

- Rithwik

I know we haven't interacted much offline, except marketing classes obviously. But our online phase has been a crazy one. You are one of my motivators to study, or should I say competition, haha. I hope you succeed in life, and your forever studying behaviour pays off in the end. All the best for your future endeavours!

- Vidhi Tiwari

Thank you for always being such a helpful person Bhavesh!

- Sanya Chandra

Cheers to the psych lectures we had with Arjo sir that made us question our sanity XD! Tons of fun dude.

- Pranav Kakkar

BHAVYA BANSAL

The Curious one!

Hey! I know we never interacted at all coz the first time I saw you was in the Further Maths lecture. I am intrigued by the curiosity in you and I wish you the best in life!

- Mihir Raravikar

$$\begin{aligned} & B \lim_{x \rightarrow 1} \frac{ctgx - 2}{2\pi x^3} Q'' \quad \int (x \pm a)^c \\ & + y^2 = z \quad S_5 = \begin{bmatrix} 1 & 0 & 0 \\ 1 & 0 & 1 \\ 0 & 0 & 1 \end{bmatrix} \quad \phi = \sqrt{\frac{z}{r}} \\ & \pi \approx 3,1415 \quad \int \sin x \\ & P = r^2 \pi \quad (x+y)^2 = \left(\frac{y}{2}\right)^2 \quad \frac{\Delta x}{\Delta y} \\ & \Delta t = T - \frac{3a}{x} \quad 8x = 4 - 3y^2 \\ & (x-y) \quad y = 2x^2 + 3x \quad \ln(x+a) \\ & \int \frac{\sqrt{x+a}}{x} \quad e = 2,79 \quad e = \cos x + t \\ & P = \sum_{i=0}^{\infty} X_i \quad \ln = \sqrt{axb} \\ & = (y-1)^2 \quad \frac{y}{\Delta x} \quad \sin a = b \end{aligned}$$

BHAVYA SUDHAKAR

The goofy one always ensuring no one studies more than her.
Really sweet though

Notes. Banking and Finance (3 hours mein 80). APFM (60<70). Phone calls. Big Yellow Door. My driving. One of the most wonderful people to have in your circle. Dependable.

- Raghav Gupta

BB (Bhavya da best!)

Can we go back to the First year of college when things were simple and all we did was discuss how much we studied over the weekend, fight over how I (almost always) scored more than you without having studied and prep for Xenia?! Hehe! Lots of love!

- Hitesh Jain

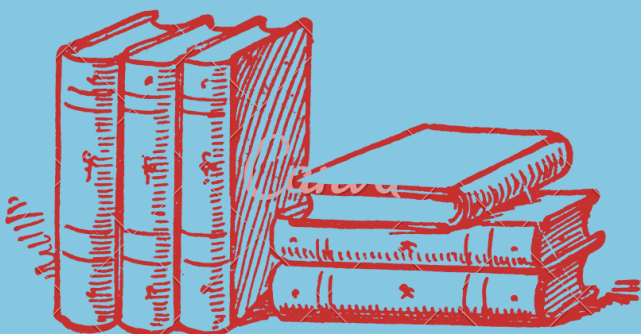

100 cr. ke ghar ki malkin, please mujhe bhi thoda paisa donate kar do, meri life bann jayegi. Ludo, Sugar, Mia ke saath ek Anirban bhi adopt kar lo, zindagi bhar wafadar rahunga.

Exam ke baad ek trip plan karte hai, mazaa kareng. All the best for future endeavours buddy!

- Anirban Maity

Literally the sweetest person of the entire batch. I hate how I only realised that at the end of the year, but I hope we keep in touch beautiful. I hope the best for you and wish you a lot of success. Lots of love <3

- Shubhangi Singh

CHITRANGINI DAVDA

Cheerful, bubbly, and the life of the party. Behind this lively exterior lies an extremely reliable and humble person

Chitu yaaaa, I don't even know where to begin. First of all, college doesn't even seem that long ago and yet, it feels like we have been together for so long! I am not gonna make this long and boring. You know how much you mean to me! You make my life so much better just by being in it and I wouldn't be the person that I am today if it weren't for you. I hope you never frown and never settle for anything less than what you deserve! I love you!

-(Cools) Colin Chandna

The only acceptable and sane roommate. I'll miss and recall the memories that we've shared and would want to relive except the part where you ridiculously make fun of me. Everything has been quite easy and fun with you. Hope to just share the same bond and yes, love you a little too much.

- Meha Surana

Chitu is a cutie and a carefree person, which is something I love about her the most. We have been friends for 3 years now and I know anytime I need her, she will always be there for me and vice-versa.

- Vedika Gupta

Chitra ke baache agar yeh pad rahe hai, yes I can hear her shout too.

- Pranav Kakkar

Chittuuu, thank you for such amazing memories that I will never be able to forget! I wish you all the love and luck for the future because you deserve it! Big things coming your way, baby girl!

- Khushi Mehra

Chitu! One of the craziest and sweetest people I know. My first year would have not been the same without her. It was the best time when on daily basis, we used to annoy each other and hide each other's stuff in college. Moreover, it is her nature to make everyone around her hype up and cheer them up. So, whenever you are low, she is the one to go to. Have an amazing life ahead, stay in touch and can't wait to visit Gujarat and have your meetha but YUM khana! You are the sweetest!

-Kanan Gupta

COLIN CHANDNA

Funny, Talented, and is ALWAYS smiling. No matter what!

Ahh, the girl I thought was a boy when she first texted me on WhatsApp even before we ever met. The girl I told scary stories at night would then hide under her blanket in absolute fear. Dear Colin, now that we are parting from college, I just wanna let you know this confession: I purposely told you all the scary stories so that I could have the room all to myself; a lil selfish there I know but who cares? It worked. Plus you got to stay with amazing friends and make amazing memories that you could have had to work a lot harder with me to earn XD. My first ever roommate, we could stay in touch if you want, after all, we still live in the same place. Best of Luck :)

-Nakshatra Khapekar

Hey Ms. Hiranandani, hahaha. That's how Arjun used to call you and that's how we knew you in the first year. Can you believe it's been three god damn years that we have been hanging out? It's just crazy how time has just passed by. Initially, I never thought we would be such good friends but look where life got us... we roomies now. It's been a crazy ride with you; from getting drunk at parties to going to Nik bakers for meals, it's all been amazing. I will miss your birthday parties for sure, they have been the best. I really miss how we made fun of Meha every day before sleeping haha. It sucks that our 3rd year went into the drain but looking forward to making new crazy memories with you. Love ya cools.

-Chitragini Davda

Cools, my partner in crime for finance since the first year. Don't know how many ups and downs we have had in life but have always gone through them strongly together. Colin is the most genuine person I have met at ISBF with whom I have created endless memories. She is a person with whom I can be as candid as possible with anything and everything.

-Vedika Gupta

Heyyy, you crazy person. You are someone with such a free spirit, creative mindset, forever selfless nature and I could go on and on. But most of all, you are one of the purest souls I have ever met. We have gone to places together, cried together, and laughed together. You have left such an irreplaceable mark in my life, and I will always keep it with me. Yes, we are going different ways in life and we are gonna do many things, but I know for a fact, we will always be just phone calls away from one another. I love you beautiful, and I am gonna miss you so much.

-Vidhi Tiwari

DEVENDRA CHANDNANI

Dev is the giggle at the funeral .How to stay strong and how to keep smiling in the face of adversity is something we can learn from him

DEVVVVV, MY FAMMM! Thank you for matching my level of hype, sarcasm, humour, and stupidity. Here is to bitching about all the Tanmay's and crushing over out of our league people. Thanks for being my go-to person for everything, and I'm so fkn proud of how you have handled all the lemons life has given you and still made lemonade with a fucking smile. Mad respect, bro; all the luck to you, devvvaaa!

- Khushi Mehra

DEVVVVV what should I say about you? I literally have nothing to say to you because I've never met a guy who can make sense along with being coquette. I hope to stay in touch and see all those plans come true. Best of luck!

- Meha Surana

Call me, let's grab a beer. I got some micro and existential doubts.

- Pranav Kakkar

Chatur lol! Ig that should be the title of his page. Life of the party, drunk or not. Next Creative Director for some big Advertising Firm. Wait until he sells you one of his crazy ideas and face the consequences once you have followed his instructions.

- Pradhyum

Abey Chatur! Bahut harami ho bey tum saale. You are only one who can match my level of disgust. All the best for future endeavours.

- Anirban Maity

Hey man. Due to your help, I think I passed last year's accounts exam. Thank you so much for everything. You are a legend, and you know it, but still, I'm confirming it again.

- Rishi Vinod

2nd Year mei, mera ghar Dev ke ghar se better tha... Smart main hoon, magar chatur Dev hai!

- Hitesh Jain

HIBA HUSSAIN

Easy to talk to, and always willing to help others out when they need it!

Hi, Hiba. I'm so glad I met you. You're genuinely one of the most chill, amazing people I've ever come across. Your stupidities will surely be missed. All I can think of right now is my bt at Big Chill and how you took care of me lol. I can't believe that three years have gone by since we became friends and I hope we stay friends for many more years to come. I'm gonna miss chilling in college and hanging out around Kundu's spot with you and the other 2 mean girls. Thank you for being a part of my life. See you at Teri!

- Khwaish Juneja

The best memory with her is deciding on the food to order and chilling at Kundan. Glad to have got to know her in my second year. She is a really sweet and helping person.

- Vedika Gupta

HITESH JAIN

The kid who grew himself in ways no one else could!
Honestly, we all envy him a little.

My untrustworthy, indecisive, fat to fit, cute (but with very evil intentions), and a kindhearted friend. I think the intro says it all: the trip, the breaking into LOTD, the race, the games.

- Raghav Gupta

Marwadi sala... You are the luckiest and most hardworking asshole I have ever seen. All the best, buddy!

- Anirban Maity

You are soooooo talented and have one of the sharpest minds that I have come across. I only wish the best for you, and I hope to see you succeed in the future and marry my best friend ;) Lots of love <3

- Shubhangi Singh

I can't believe it's been 3 years since the first day and the Keventers and CCD day! Believe it or not, I think you are an absolutely amazing human being, and I wish you all the luck in the world for your future!

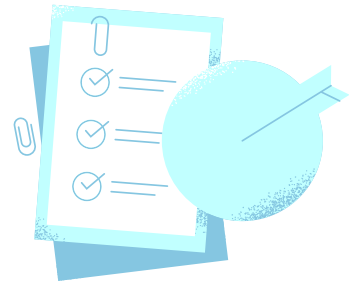

- Colin Chandna

Strolling through Amar Colony's streets looking for the best street food and running on roads during Treasure Hunt while some random uncle complimented us! The latter was pretty weird and funny!

- Anonymous

I like your vibe bro. Keep working on yourself the way you do, and then we will recreate the podcast someday. And hopefully be cool to the world and not just to each other hahah.

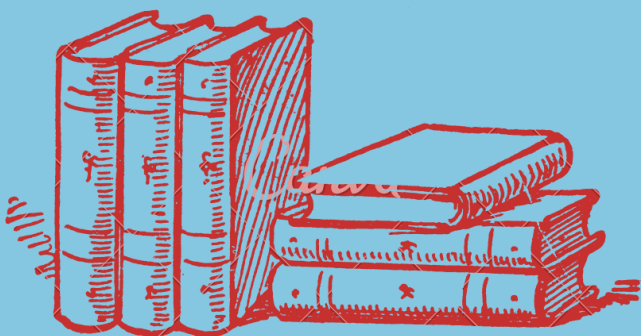

- Pranav Kakkar

ISHAAN THAPAR

The King of Accounts and Finance!

Thank you for all your help in investments!
- Yuktha Bhadane

KHWAISH JUNEJA

Fearless, bold and always ready for a debate! Not afraid to express herself

I cannot believe the first day of college was so long ago! You are such an amazing human being, and even though we may not be as close as we used to be, you have had a great impact on me, and I need you to know that!

- Colin Chandna

COOL AF

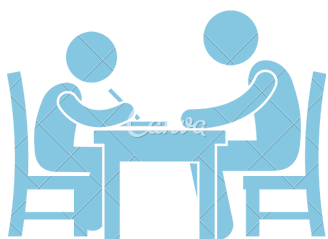

- Bhavesh Sridhar

Feel like ranting and bursting your anger out of someone else? Hi, Khwaish, hahaha. I don't know how many sessions we have had where we have just sat by the name of work and done our rant sessions about life. But honestly, she can make you laugh anytime. It is amazing to see how crazy she is and super hardworking at the same time, always creating a friendly atmosphere. Hope to see you often, Khwaja.

- Kanan Gupta

From being car buddies to being tuition buddies and finally, college buddies I never knew we would go such a long way together. For us, it's not the time that we give to each other that matters but rather, it's the quality of time. She has and will always be my friend that I can always count on.

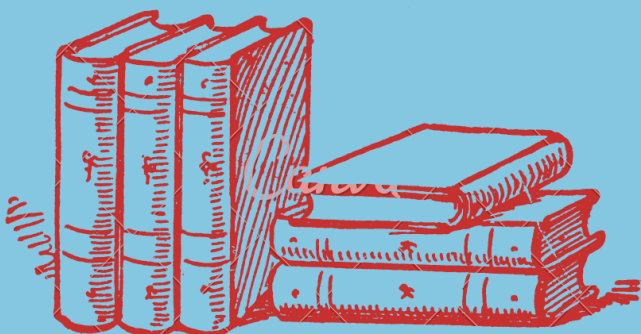

- Vedika Gupta

MAHIKA AGGARWAL

The Curious One!

Hey Mahika,
I never thought we would meet again after school and it was amazing to have you in college.
Hope you have a successful year and life ahead.
- Kanan Gupta

MANJYOT SINGH NARANG

"Haanji Pappa". Always ok with a laugh at himself, and the easiest person to talk to. has the largest heart

Manjyootttt, my IGNOU partner! I can't forget the conversations we used to have on the terrace about the most random stuff ever. Glad to have found a brother like you at ISBF

-Vedika Gupta

USMCA - ASAHI FOREVER - MANJU - OH SARDAR OYE

My unofficial roomie! Fun times throughout college and naturally felt at home with each other.

- Hitesh Jain

JOTA MA BOI! Lmao, fam imma chill with you next year. Stay a dumbshit though; we need new content :)

-Siddharth T

Manjyot, you are in such a mood! Ahaha love spending time with you, especially drunk you! I wish you all the best for your future, and I hope you never change!

-Colin Chandna

Gandi aadate chod de Bhai, and stop calling me at 2 am bc I have to sleep.

-Pranav Kakkar

MUSKAAN KATHURIA

The rare, sleepy face in class that floats through the hours and then goes out to grab some snack

I will never forget the trip to Moolchand CCD when we got a break. It will by far be one of the most fun memories that I have from our first few days in college! We were never that close, but I knew that if I needed you, I could always count on you. So, thank you for that! All the best for everything you want to achieve, and I hope you get all that you deserve and ask for!

- Colin Chandna

I remember one time you saw me walking to college and very kindly offered a ride, but then the time it took us to find parking was way longer than what it would've taken for me to walk to class and back to where you'd found me, haha!

- Sharon

Hey! From all our projects and teams we were in, it's been a crazy journey. I hope life blesses you with all you wish for, and your true spirit gets you to many places. You are an amazing person; stay the same. I will miss you!

- Vidhi Tiwari

Yo, I'll miss the 2 am texts I get about the morning exam from you. Along with the ones you send during the exam :P. Whatta vibe

- Pranav Kakkar

Hey buddy. We haven't hung out a lot, but I know that you a great gal. All the classes and projects have been fun with you, and like you say, we should hang out more; it would be fun. I am totally on board with this suggestion. I hope you have a great life ahead, and let's stay in touch.

- Chitrangani Davda

Hey, Muskaan! You're one of the first few people I spoke to at ISBF, and I'm glad that I did. It's been amazing spending time with you, going to lunches, and gossiping. You're absolutely fabbbb! Keep shining always ✨

- Khwaish Juneja

Muskaan, first of all, I'd like to say that college wouldn't have been even a tad bit fun if it wasn't for you. From the first year to now, we have come a long way. I wish that we can sustain our friendship for as long as possible and probably look back and remember how our friendship's journey commenced.

- Mahika Agarwal

Muskaan is a very carefree and helping person. Love bumping her in the middle of the college and being surprised to see us attend class.

- Vedika Gupta

Heyy, I don't know you for long but you are super hard working person when you feel like putting your best in. Have a successful life ahead and it was really amazing to work with you in MSM. Hope you achieve whatever you desire for.

- Kanan Gupta

MEHA SURANA

Sarcasm and Satire overdose, full masti all the time. At the end she gets more marks than you

Hey, you idiot. I don't even know where to start, lol, but the first thing I want to say is that I am thankful for the time when we decided to shift in together at the hostel randomly; it all began from there, and it's been endless since. You have seen every mood and phase of mine in just two years; consider yourself blessed. And even I have seen many, many sides of you which I don't want to disclose here shall save your image even tho it is nonexistent. We both have tolerated each other's bullshit, and I couldn't have had it any other way. I am gonna cherish all of it always. By the way, I even hate you for some reasons, the first that you made me watch stupid Big Boss and the other is that you never came out with me even if I requested you a thousand times. I know you regret that, and that's the best feeling, haha. I can write endless stupid things about us, but we got a lifetime to talk about those... blah too cheesy, but hello, that's me. I love you, dumbshit. Looking forward to much higher on life trips with you.

- Chitrangani Davda

I cannot imagine what my life would have been without you. You are the light of my life and insulting you is legit the best use of my time! You have had such an impact on my life and you make it so much better just by being around. I hope to come and trouble you super soon and I have missed you so much you have no idea. I love you yaaaaaar!

- Colin

Mehu! I got close to her during the blaize practices, and I used to look up to her cause she is an amazing dancer. I love the determination and the dedication she has towards her work. I love how she is always chirpy and enjoying and making everyone around her enjoy too.

- Vedika Gupta

I've seen you grow soo much throughout college. So proud of you, Meha! Gotta show me around when I visit Agra!!

- Hitesh Jain

I have one line for Meha, "the happiest face in college 24/7". Shine forever and stay the same.

- Kanan Gupta, your food partner forever

Hi idiot, I can't remember when I spoke to you nicely or had a normal conversation. Nonetheless, haha, Meha, you are just a crazy girl filled with so much passion and sleep, of course. You are always bringing up jokes and trying to keep us all laughing with a good vibe. I love how we talk at least once in 2 weeks, and it doesn't seem like we haven't spoken. Your personality is phenomenal, and everyone deserves a friend like you. I am glad I could spend some 2 years with you and make the most out of them, the online phase; you were MIA. I love you so much, and I am gonna miss you.

- Vidhi Tiwari

Mehuuuu, I am so fucking proud of the woman you have transitioned into and the amount of fun your having! You deserve it all and i cannot wait to see what life has in store for you! Thank you for the best 2 years, my sis! All the love

- Khushi Mehra

Thanks for making macro and micro tolerable!

- Bhavya Bansal

NISHTHA SHRIVASTAV

The Stunner!

Thought you were in a batch above us,
for an entire year of knowing you! LOL

- SHARON

NAKSHATRA KHAPEKAR

The night owl of the college!

Sorry to be a math problem. I didn't intend to be one :p

- Pranav Kakkar

Bro, you're one of the coolest and the craziest people I know! Thanks for always helping!!

- Sanya Chandra

You once waved at me and said, "Hi Hitesh!" in the library, out of the blue. And that made me feel like I was the chosen one!

- Hitesh Jain

PRAGATI MALIK

Helpful, responsible, and smart. She is not only dedicated and resourceful but humble too!

I was awkward and fussy before meeting you for the first time.

I would have been at a loss if I had not met you that day, met, and we clicked, and you ruled with your messy hairs and goofy smile. You understood my 9:30 Cinderella thoughts. Our "Couple Jokes" still rule, and thank you for helping with my application. You helped a person you never met, and I bugged a person I never met( So Proud I am). So, This is my official petition to know you better!

- Kritika Soni

Intimidating, that's what I thought at first. But you are adorable! It was great working in the team for xenia!

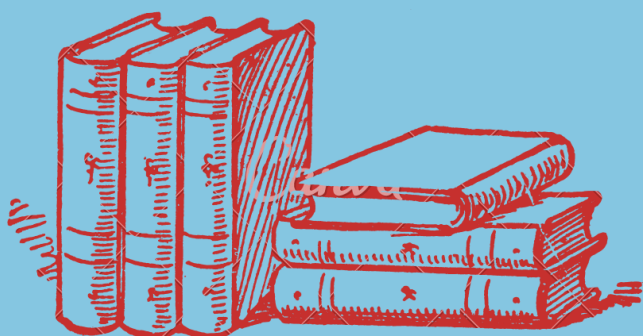

- Harsh Barot

We were not able to find a waffle place for our blue team during food fest XD Appreciate your spontaneity and generous nature. So much to learn from you, Pragati!

- Hitesh Jain

Well, I think working together for the MUN in the first year will be the most iconic memory of us ever. We have too many, but that one was the start of us!

- Sanya Chandra

PRADHYUMN CHOUDHARY

Child prodigy with relentless energy

Not everyone is a born genius, but our Prad Bitt was. After being the country topper in his JEE examinations, Prad came to D50 with lots of knowledge to give and love to take. Puking on my bed and seeing him running around the hostel naked are just some of his fine achievements I had the good fortune of witnessing. The thing I envy Prad the most for is his popularity. If only I could have as many friends like him. What a gem of a person.

- Dev Chandnani

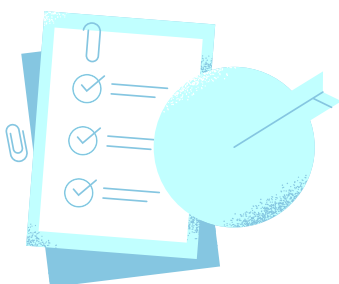

Bruh, thanks a ton for the chill times at your place and the ahem ahem stay in touch, man! all the best

- Pranav Kakkar

Hum zyada baat nahi karte, hum thoda baat karte hai, aur bada kaam karte hai...

You occasionally inspire me to bring out more of my goofy self and be more carefree. Love you, man!

- Hitesh Jain

RAGHAV GUPTA

The in-house Mark Cuban of ISBF. Sharktank King

You are a PERFECT gem, worth so much more than you know. You are definitely the best at changing relations (from brother to) and entering people's worlds. I am so grateful that I met you; and it has been the best year of my life, and I owe it to you. The quantity of people writing for you does not matter because the quality of relations you have built with them is far more than most people have. I wish the best for you, and I hope you stay the same forever. Lots of love <3

- Shubangini

If there's a question that I have to ask in the class, pretty sure Raghav is gonna ask the same one :) So similar yet so dissimilar, still friends somehow. I'll still not forget him having pulled my chair as I was sitting and laughing at my embarrassment.

- Hitesh Jain

Dapper, dashing, and a beautiful person inside out.

All the best for your future raghav!!

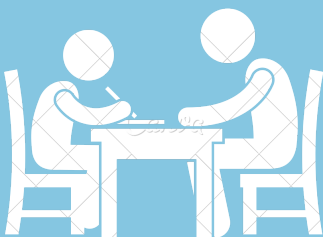

- Sneha Chakrabarti

I hope you don't get fooled by another data entry job. Also, we need to do another trip really soon—all the best for future endeavours, buddy.

- Anirban Maity

Best friend since day 1 !!
Despite your weird attributes, you'll still be my best from college.

- Bhavya Sudhakar

PRANAV KAKKAR

High in Spirits. A contagious, infectious personality, who will never stop laughing and making others smile. Unfiltered, raw and unapologetically himself

Pranav, you are such a vibrant soul! I could get very philosophical here, but maybe this isn't the place for it. I want you to know; I hope you never change! I hope you always always always have policemen and creepy pandits chase you! I can't wait to jam with you in the Usual place or hear your stories in an IMH event! All the best, ya, for everything!

- Colin Chandna

Ah, bro! I definitely thought you are the best to approach when in need of fun or humor! But seeing you in IMH, I also know you are someone who listens to people. And I appreciate that so much bro!

- Harsh Barot

Pranav is one crazy soul that I know at ISBF. He is a really genuine and helping person. With him, the best memory I have is the time he told us the Gali wali story and all the other evening time fun.

- Vedika Gupta

The first senior I met from ISBF. Obv I was nervous when I first met him, but he's gotta be the easiest person to talk to, and he had me feeling like a friend in no time! You got a good heart, big homie! Best of luck with whatever's coming next, and always be as spontaneous as you are.

-Anubhav Gauba

Not cool - Bhavesh Sridhar

PK, I'm gonna miss seeing you, PK!. The most chill dude I have met in my life, gonna miss you, fam. I'll see you when they deport you from Dublin. Cheers to the good vibes, jokes, and laughs we had, bruh! Words of Wisdom: There is no road to lemonade :)

-Siddharth T

Arey reeee, Iss sexy munde ko kya hi bolu. First won me over with his sexy long hair, then with his "Chill bro" attitude, and then with his poetries, and then with his eventful life stories and makes me wonder that life is too short to not get into or do something crazy and spontaneously! Love you bro!

- Hitesh Jain

S SNEHA

If there is one person who could study 24*7 and still smile and make everything seem effortless, she's the one

Sneha, you're one of the sweetest people out there and truly a gem! Stay the same!!

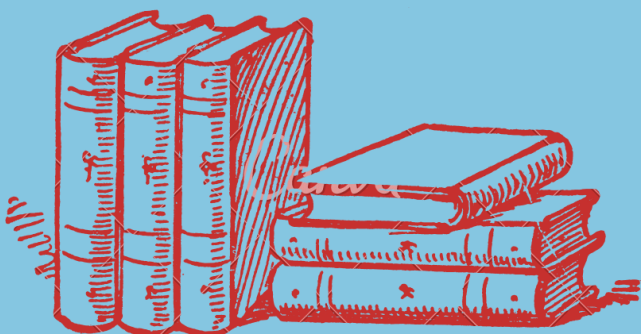

- Sanya Chandra

Such a sweetheart. Loved barging into your room and having the most random conversations. I hope the best for you. <3

- Shubhangi Singh

Hey first roomie. I think you would be shocked to see that I wrote something, haha. But man, you were my first roommate in a place that was totally new for me, and though we are people whose personalities are poles apart, you a great great person Sneha. You have always been helpful and kind to me. It was a good experience to have shared a room with you. I hope you have a great life ahead.

- Chitrangini Davda

RITHVIK PARAKALA

Loves to play Cricket and fun guy to have around!

Rithvik, your humor game: strong as fuck, your cooperative nature: wholesome as hell, your smile: cutest of a kind. At first when I saw you, you looked so tired and the first words I heard out of you: bitching about isbf. I straight away knew that you are a person I will never get bad vibes from. I am sorry about the time I yelled, "pretend you didn't hear that" at you in the late September of 2019. A very simple guy who anyone can simp for. I admire you the most of out all the boys in our batch. A true man of culture indeed.

- Nakshatra Khapekar

Hey hey! I am sure you weren't expecting this, but co-incidentally we have always been either part of a cheating group or somewhere to work together. You have a really bright mind and an accommodating personality. I hope life blesses you with the best! Thank you for being a part of my college journey!

- Vidhi Tiwari

SAI SRUTHI

Voted: Ms. Genuine

We are ARMY!!!

Dedicated to First Third Year I met, spoke, and worked with.

Believe me, if Namjoon were here and then, he would have fallen for the Artistic, goofy, and cute Sruthi.

Don't Leave Unni:(

If you leave, then who would play along with my hearts, who will crush over you, know the boys and who would give Aditi the looks when she says, "They All look the same!"

KCC and our talks are still on, but more than that, I am grateful that I met you not as an ARMY but as Sruthi.

- Kritika Soni

Sai, my beloved, I have loved you since you and I started working together in Xenia'19, and what do you know, I never stopped! I knew you are like a sweet, sweet candy melting in our mouths when you scoured your brother and father to fix my laptop personally. I will truly miss our kitchen conversations in the morning and sometimes at night. I will cherish your sweetness forever Sai, may you become the best version of yourself, coz I see it coming.

- Nakshatra

You are such a genuine and amazing human being, and I want you to know that you have greatly impacted my life. From living across you to seeing you in M63 has been such a long journey, and I wish you all the best for your future, and I hope I see you super soon!

- Colin Chandna

Bro, you've been one of the sweetest people at college since the beginning!

- Sanya Chandra

SAI RUSHI RAJ

If Tendulkar had a son out of wedlock. The life of the hostel, and the man who can mimic anyone!

USMCA - ASAHI FOREVER

I can listen to Rushi talk about cricket all day long and not get bored. Fun times playing cricket and learning stats in our room!

- Hitesh Jain

You are anyway a legend, brother. All the cricket/ soccer games that we played in Siri and Sapna park are unforgettable. I ain't forgiving you for that 'non-alcoholic' coke that you gave me. Oh, and thanks for carrying me from the bed on that day to play. It was the best thing for me. Have a wonderful future, man, and enjoy.

- Rishi Vinod

Rushi, my boii, don't forget to catch up with manjyot, and while you are at it, call me too, man! I miss you bruh, gonna recreate the podcast someday! Cheers. Also, stop stealing water.

- Pranav Kakkar

Emailing PM Modi about renaming Sapna Park after you, bruh! Man, we would be Tendulkar and Sehwag. I only if I could bat, and you accept you cant bat! Cheers to the many days we wasted doing random shit in the hostel,. Gonna miss you bro

-Siddharth T

SAMRIDDHI CHOPRA

The Cutest in College!

Hello, Sammy boy! You're one of the funniest people I have ever met in my life. Every single conversation with you ends in all of us being in laughing fits! I'm genuinely really glad that I met you. ISBF mein kuch toh achha hua . I hope you get all the 119's that you want in life. I'm gonna miss chilling in college and hanging out around kundun's spot with you and the other 2 mean girls.

- Khwaish Juneja

Everyone says they lost friends in lockdown, but I believe I made a crazy one! You have always been a jolly one and the craziest kid! Stay the same, Sammy!

- Kanan Gupta

We have had some amazing times planning exam answers and executing them! Let's do that one last time again! Ahaha! Stay the same amazing human you are!

- Sanya Chandra

My memory with her that I would remember always is seeing each other during exams and being so clueless about the syllabus and what to write. She is a fun person to be around.

- Vedika Gupta

SAJAG SAXENA

ISBF's in-house AR Rahman and Arjit Singh rolled into one.

Bro, I don't need to explain how thankful I am to you. Out of all my seniors, you have been the greatest and the most accepting of all my ideas and suggestions for TRIN and whatnot. And we have to continue the dark jokes, man, seriously not joking. I loved every minute of working with you, bro, and our constant complaining about college is to die for. Have a wonderful future, mate.

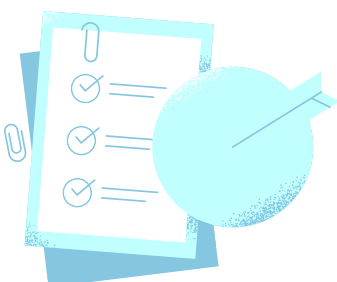

-Rishi Vinod

Well, bitch all I'll say is, I wouldn't have survived these almost 3 years without you!

-Sanya Chandra

Keep making music sir!

- Pranav Kakkar

SAURAV NIRMAL JAIN

SANYA CHANDRA

Madam AIESEC!

We are strong. Still going strong. Sanya is the one person I can go to for any support, gossip, and advice. Helpfulness is her entire personality. My girl gave me the number of the person I could procure weed from and smoke it. They told me how even to wrap it and all. This girl also gave me the ATM PIN of Eshan Zain that I still remember to this day. There is not enough space and time to write every memory I have of her. She's a badass with a cute, wholesome personality that is really lacking in people these days....especially me, the wholesome personality, not the badass thingy; I already have that. Sanya, I want you to know that if you're stuck somewhere in something, I will be there, especially if you want to get into something illegal and dangerous(like a murder or something); I promise I'll have your back and use this special weapon called me, wisely, coz you might need me someday, and this is not a privilege I grant to everybody. Just kidding, not a privilege, a lifetime subscription.

-- Anonymous

I always heard this saying, "be around people who are better than you"! All I can say is I am extremely grateful to have met you! From Vibing on all sorts of random things to cribbing about college, work, and exams, we have come a long way! I am going to cherish this for times without end! Baki ki emotional being chai break pe!

- Sajag Saxena

My meme partner, I swear! Thank you for existing, you beautiful human. You are such a gem, and I only hate not getting to know you sooner! This virtual friendship has been so so so great, and I absolutely cannot wait to chill with you IRL! *inserts a meme about how you are a cutie, maybe ACP Pradyuman with blush cheeks* I love youuu!

- Colin Chandna

Bro forever! Sometimes life gives us lemons, toh we make a tasty lemonade out of it. To sustainable development, Cheers!

SHRIYA SUBRAMANIAN

Made us proud at LSE Summer School!

Soo many random conversations with Shriya that I'll probably remember for a lifetime! Never gonna forget your smile and guts to ask questions in class that none of us dare to ask.

- Hitesh Jain

SATWIK VAISHNAVA

ISBF needed a big daddy. We got one :) the craziest guy who always ensures everyone has a good time. cheers

Broooo, I cannot wait to party with you, man. I absolutely love the drunk version of you, and we all have to do it again ASAP! All the best for everything you set out to do, Satwik!

- Colin Chandna

The best memory was stealing his sweatshirt in the first year trip and then forgetting to return until he called, lol.

- Vedika Gupta

That drive was perhaps the most insane experience of my life, fam! Cheers to the good times

-Siddharth T

Thanks for everything bro! you know it all. cheers

SHARON TSURHO

Loves Dogs and Super friendly!

Sharon, I love almost everything about you. Especially your dog. I never imagined that we could make such a dynamic duo in our later years at college. I love hanging out with you, something I never even thought I was capable of. My stay at your home was my very first sleepover at a friend's house. I will miss our study sessions together. I will miss fluffy. I will miss our zoom calls to sit and stare at each other's faces pretending to study. I will miss your dog. I don't think I have to write too much in this form for you to understand how important you were and are to me for my college journey. I will literally choose violence if I ever have to give you up. Sharon, you're one of my closest friends from college, and I think your brother is hot with all the Brazilian jujitsu he practices. Next time I visit your house, I will definitely play chess with him. Tell him I think about him sometimes and fluffy.

- Nakshatra Khapekar

All the random lunch plans were one of the best times we spent!

- Sanya Chandra

VEDIKA GUPTA

The one who is always a call away. All the best for the perfume brand!

They partner. Why did COVID-19 ruin our 3rd year? Classes in the other two years were torture but at least I had you to trouble which made classes easy to tolerate. I will remember each and every eco class where you just been sleepy all along and made me also sleepy. On that note, very can you believe we aced the god damn eco paper haha. The amount we used to rant well. College time with you has been a hella ride; from those sleepy classes to all the lunches after them, created such amazing memories. I remember that one time when we got so excited and decided to go to big chill after class but the damn place was shut and we had to eat at dominos, man that sucked, gonna always remember it. Can't even list down all the crazy times we have had, really going to miss it all. Looking forward to making many new memories with you. Love ya vedika.

- Chitrangini Davda

Veduuuuu, you're such a gem of a person! I am so proud of whatever you have achieved and cannot wait for whatever there is in store for you! Thank you for such amazing memories! All the love to you veduuu

-Khushi Mehra

My potato head partner, we are a testimony that our friendship stays intact no matter what happens. I have had crazy memories with you, and I am sorry I don't remember any, and you know why. What matters is that you would always bring that box of parantha for my hangover, and we would happily eat it. You are such a giving person and, in turn, ask for absolutely nothing. I hope the path you take in life leads you to great success, and you do so well in life. Don't worry; I will be there to support you and cheer you on. I love you so much, and I am gonna miss you.

-Vidhi Tiwari

Vedika, one of the V's of the batch and took me two months two figure which was which V. I have known you for the past two years now and it has been a roller coaster, and you have been an example of a true friend one must have in their life. We both have seen our highs and lows, and I believe she is a gem person and super annoying at the same time. You are one of those friends who turn into family. Hope we stay in touch forever and have our "sessions" regularly!

- Kanan Gupta

You are such a sweet, lovely and caring person. I cannot even begin to tell you how much I am going to miss you. You are such an important person in my life. I wouldn't be who I am if it weren't for you. You have been there for me constantly and you will forever be my Bagli! I love you way too much to write it down and I just hope you know how much you mean to me! (I know emotions make you uncomfortable to I am keeping this short!)

-Colin Chandana

SIDDHARTH JAMAD

Mr. global topper in life. We are jealous of you. Do well. Always cite your research papers. Share your money with us.

I will abstain from cracking crappy jokes here because you have cracked everyone's lifetime share of cracking theirs over just the last three years. Shit, aren't we going to live together in London, too?

Anyway, you are the most patient listener I have ever met. Read that again with some stress on "patient." It's one thing to be quiet on the exterior and a wildly different thing to be quiet on the inside, in addition to that when listening to someone else. Kudos.

-Hitesh Jain

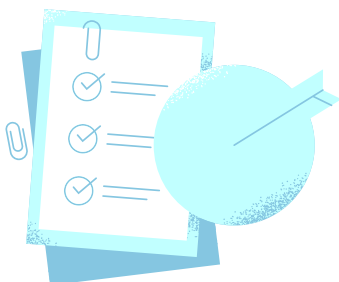

Diligent - Bhavesh Shridhar

All the best for future endeavors, man. You are the smartest ass I've ever met.

You have my respect, man. Deserving.

VIRAJ AGARWAL

The Hostel Foodie!

Viraj, my giddy-up buddy, you are a gem. Precious snowball needs to learn a lot from me. We've not made as many memories as you might have with others but know this, you have made it successfully to the list of boys from our batch I appreciate and respect. This is huge, Viraj. You should feel good about yourself. I didn't have any opinions of you when we were in our first year, but I did have much news about you. I didn't get any closer before the 2019 trip where you brought a glass of alcohol for me. I will always cherish you for that. Hackathon made our conversations so real that we actually started vibing with each other. You have evolved a lot from a guy I barely talked to, to my go-to guy. I have no negative memories or opinions of you, making you even more interesting to me. We'll keep up our talks beyond the arena of college; I know that for sure, and I promise to answer all your texts forever, king.

- Nakshatra Khapekar

It's been a great ride through these years! You've been an amazing friend! Thanks for all the brownies, obviously, and do revisit Lucknow! I know it's better. I'm glad the debate was finally settled after 2 years :')

- Sanya Chandra

Hey You! I love how you know I won't call back or won't go to yum yum cha, and I hate that I didn't go when I could. Nonetheless, I am glad that I had a friend like you. You always have been kind and nice, filled with selflessness. Everyone needs a friend like you. I hope things get better so that you come to Africa and see that it's not bad, haha. You are hard-working, and I hope all your dreams come true! I will miss you, Viraj.

-Vidhi Tiwari

Viraj is someone with whom I never knew we would get so close and in such a short time that we are comfortable sharing anything with each other. Viraj you are a little crack but a sweet guy who I am sure thinks the best for everyone around him.

- Vedika Gupta

VANDITA PAL

Ms. Absolutely Adorable. Forever grateful for her inspiring and unimaginable contributions to ISBF

The first week of orientation is when we became friends, and we are still going strong. You have always been there when my life is at its worst; I can never forget that you came to mahipalpur with me; it was the worst experience ever and one of those that I will never forget. I definitely miss seeing you walk in through the usual room door looking all homeless at 11 in the morning, struggling to carry your stones stuffed bag, haha; like seriously, what did you carry in that. OH OH OH THE MAGGIE RICEEEE... you made me fall in love with those; they the yummiest. Your home was amazing and saved our hungry asses almost every day. I started college by doing a project with you and ended it the same; I couldn't have asked for anything better. I am looking forward to seeing you and rant about a thousand crappy stuff that's going on in my life. I love you, my Vandy pal. A1 since day1.

- Chitrangini Davda

Hey Prez! Running college affairs completely online for a whole academic year is no joke. Kudos for doing it so effortlessly; you have been an inspiring soul. More power to you, and good luck! :)

- Rithwik

I have no absolute memory of how we ended up being friends, but college would've been monotonous without you. I can never forget all the micro ka dev fun and wish to keep in touch with you always. MCD ftw!

-Meha Surana

Memories make a place, and you're my happy place is! Thank you for being the sister I never had and my guiding light. I don't want to write much but wish you all the luck for the future. You will do some great things in life, and I cannot wait to see you do them while I stand right behind you. All the love and luck, my sister, here's to 50 more years!!!

-Khushi Mehra

We have come a long way from the first year, but in the end, we made amazing memories even though they were online. You are a crazy, sweet, diligent, beautiful, and amazing leader. Every day spent with you was something new I learned because you are such a giving person. I will miss you so much, and I hope we stay in touch like you have 1000000 kids. Love you Vandu, thank you for the memories!

-Vidhi Tiwari

So my favorite memory with Vandita would be when we used to sit and relax in the new council room during our second year and talk about the whole bs of the day. That is the time that actually got us both close, and I am glad to have developed this bond with her.

-Vedika Gupta

Helloooo vandu, I Absolutely can't believe 3 years have come to an end. You are the cutest person ever, and you make me so so so happy, you have no idea. I cannot wait to see you accomplish so many great things and cheer you on! I am so proud of the person you have become and the work that you do! Keeping this short because you know how much I love you! xo

VIDHI TIWARI

The chirpy of the batch. taking all the responsibilities on her shoulders and delivering the best of experience to everyone. has a knack for making friends.

Hello school partner. Who would have thought that we would be such good friends in college? Definitely not me, haha. I still laugh when I think of those catfights in school; good, they were hilarious. Well, I never thought we would be friends, but I am glad that we are. It's been crazy to have known you. Please develop some taste and stop eating that stupid yippie noodles of yours. Every time I told you that let's go out for food, all you gotta have is hostel food; I hope you did regret all that no's during this stupid Covid-19. Talking about your habits, please throw the crocks away now, high time!! I miss all the drunken nights, from our freshers to all the other parties we attended together... crazy. I know we had our ups downs over the 2 tiny years we have known each other, but we still friends, and that's how it's gonna be, gonna go strong all along. Love ya monkey, and grow up already.

- Chitrangini Davda

There was not even a single day in the first year that I didn't annoy you. Our bond started to develop because of pulling each other's leg and getting mad at each other. I still remember one of our fights in the first year when I didn't talk to her for two days, and only I know how much she annoyed me to talk to me. But I guess I have seen her grow a lot in the past year. Vidhi has been a complete transformation and became super hard-working while staying in a bad Internet country (I'll taunt you forever, thanks). Try to come to India someday and have a crazy time with all of us. See you soon.

- Kanan Gupta

One of my first friends in college...! Planned independence day celebrations and headed to Amar colony to discuss it, but ended up doing chit chat/ gossip - which Vidhi seems to be great at - at having fun and engaging conversations.

- Hitesh Jain

Vidhi was my first friend in college and a friend that I still have the same relationship with. Me and her have had a lot of memories form getting drunk together, to crying, to working together, to fighting, to gossiping and what not. She is really a cutely and a caring friend, I love her the most

I can't believe I'm genuinely putting in the effort for such a useless person like you. To never-ending gyaan sessions that made absolutely no sense to you and your choices can prove that. I Will miss you, and I hope in the next 10 years to finally settle w some guy.

I cannot even begin to tell you how grateful I am to have you in my life. You make me smile by just being in the same room. You are my go-to person, my constant support system, and my best friend, and I can't wait to see you. You mean so much to me, and I think I do a good job reminding you about it now and then. You have grown up so much in the last 3 years, and the best part is that I got to live this transition with you. I love you so much!

HIII V! All i want to say is thank you for bringing in light into my life on the darkest of days and being my guiding light. You have been my little bundle of joy and someone who gives me instant happiness. I am so proud of the person you have become this last year and i cannot wait to see you do great things and make me proud. All the love, V!
